

Richard Erschik, CTE, CC, CL

In addition to his outstanding contributions to the trade show industry's exhibitor education and training program, Richard Erschik stands out as a qualified instructor for speaking and presentation delivery training.

1. Extensive Speaking Experience: Richard has conducted more than 350 in-person seminars, on-line webinars, and in-company workshops, showcasing his proficiency as a speaker and presenter. His ability to engage audiences and communicate complex concepts effectively positions him as an experienced and confident public speaker.
2. Industry Recognition: Renowned international industry associations, trade show organizers, and print media publishers have sought Richard's expertise to speak at their events. His notable engagements with organizations such as ConExpo, the Society of Manufacturing Engineers, the International Association of Exhibition Executives, and Exhibitor Magazine underscore the industry's recognition of his speaking prowess.
3. Editorial Features: Richard's insights and achievements have been featured in prestigious publications, including the Chicago Tribune, Harvard Business Review, and Trade Show Executive magazine. These editorial features not only highlight his contributions to the industry but also attest to his ability to articulate ideas in a compelling and engaging manner.
4. Training and Workshop Facilitation: Throughout his extensive career, Richard has not only spoken at events but has also facilitated workshops and training sessions. This hands-on experience in teaching and guiding others demonstrates his commitment to knowledge transfer and skill development.
5. Listed as a Who's Who in Exhibitor Education: Trade Show Executive magazine has recognized Richard Erschik as a Who's Who in exhibitor education. This acknowledgment further emphasizes his standing as an authority in the field and solidifies his qualifications to teach a speaking and presentation training class.
6. Toastmasters: Richard has been a member of Toastmasters and is an international speaker award winner. He was president of 2 active Toastmaster's clubs simultaneously, in South Florida for 3 years, and has helped hundreds of members improve their speaking, leadership, and presenting skills.

In conclusion, Richard Erschik's qualifications to teach a speaking and presentation training course are evident in his extensive speaking experience, industry recognition, editorial features, and active involvement in training and workshop facilitation. His proven ability to captivate audiences and communicate effectively positions him as a valuable resource for individuals looking to enhance their speaking and presentation skills.
